Engagement Announced

Terry Colley Durham whose engagement to Mary, daughter of Sir Leicester Harmsworth, brother of Lord Northcliffe was announced in London Jan 8th, is the oldest son of the late Wm Archer Durham, of Appomattox, Va. For a year prior to his going to London where he has been on business for the past few months, he was a member of the real estate firm of Fuqua and Durham, of Norfolk, Va. He has a brother, Walter E. Durham, a business man in Richmond. Miss Harmsworth's father is a member of the English Parliament and the owner of several news papers. Her mother was Miss Annie Scott, daughter of the late Thomas Scott, of Clapham and Cornard, Suffolk. She has four uncles all of whom are interested in the publishing business and with her father are owners of seventy seven newspapers, said to be a record in British Journalism Her uncles are Alfred Viscount Northcliffe the oldest and most famous of the brothers; Harold Viscount Rothermere; Cecil Harmsworth the English Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs; and Hildebrand Harmsworth, the youngest of the brothers The Harmsworth home is at Moray Lodge, Campden Hill

Mr. Durham, the groom elect is a graduate of the University of Richmond, B A. '10 M A '11 and also a graduate of Oxford University, where he was Rhodes Scholar from Virginia 1914 17. He was for two years Professor of Mathematics of Greenville (S C) Womans College and taught for a year in Richmond, Va. During the World War, he served in France for more than a year being 2nd Lieutenant in the U. S. Field Artillery.

Wheeler—Moore

At the Virginian Hotel last Saturday Mr. Robert Wheeler and Miss Ruth Lynn Moore were united in marriage.

The groom is a prominent lumber manufacturer and was reared in Campbell county, where he has large interests at this time, but has been operating mills in this county for the past three years, and is very much esteemed for his integrity and high ideals.

His bride is a daughter of countyman, Mr C. A. Moore, of Beckham, but she has been with her aunt, Mrs. H. C. Babcock, here for about two years—She is a fine young lady and Bob is receiving the hearty congratulation of his friends on event. They will make their home in town and for this we are especially delighted.

W. D. Doss

Mr. W. D Doss died at his home this Wednesday of pneumonia. Deceased was a Confederate soldier, and was a splendid citizen. He resided near Spout Spring, and his remains were interred at old Concord church. He is survived by a large family to whom much sympathy is extended.

Permanent Whitewash.

Mix six pounds of whiting with cold water, taking care to leave no lumps. It should be about the consistency of thick cream. In an old jar steep three ounces of size in cold water for 12 hours. Then make it very hot, but be careful not to let it boil. Pour it while hot into the whitewash. It is most essential that the size be fresh or the smell of it will be quite intolerable. Any coloring—green, pink, blue, or fawn—may be added.

Mrs. R. C. Mann

The home of R. C. Mann was clothed in sorrow by the death of his wife, whose patient suffering ceased at 11 o'clock Friday morning. Mrs. Mann, who was one of Appomattox's most loved christian women, had been confined to her bed since summer. It was her abiding faith and confident purpose which bore her up to the last.

Beloved by all who knew her and attended to the end by these loved ones, all human aid was given her.

A member of the Methodist church since childhood, her pleasing and loving presence was always an inspiration in futhering its efforts.

With her in her long days of illness were her mother, Mrs. M. H Simms, and mother-in-law, Mrs. Nettie Mann, who were constantly giving their loving efforts for recovery Neighbors and friends were ever thoughtful in doing what they could to help lessen their anxieties.

Funeral services conducted by Rev W. G Bates, Jr, pastor Memorial Methodist church were held Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. Burial was made in the Simm's family cemetery on the farm of the mother of deceased

Surviving Mrs. Mann are her husband, R C. Mann, son, Ryland, Mother, Mrs M. H Simms, sister, Mrs. C Jenning Ferguson, and brother, B. C Simms, all residents of Appomattox county.

Falling River

Dear Editor,

As the holidays are over will try and give you a few sketches of what happened.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs Fitzgerald and children, of Roanoke, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. B Poe, also Mr. and Mrs G. W. Foster and children, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Foster and children, of Morris church, Campbell, Co. It had been some time since all were all together and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. Dinner was served with nice large turkey, ham and desserts.

Monday Messrs H. B Fitzgerrald, J. R. Poe, B C Poe went hunting and killed several birds and rabbits Tuesday Mr. Smith, superintendent of Southern Express, Lynchburg, Va., came down and joined in the hunt. Mr. H. B. Fitzgerrald was accidently shot by Mosby Poe in the temple but nothing serious.

Wednesday the hunting party motored to the home of G. W. Foster, near Morris Church, where Henry Foster, R. P. Foster, G. W. Foster and Willard Brewer joined in the hunt and they captured four large wild turkeys and large quantity of birds and rabbitts. The hunting party returned Friday night to Mr. R. B. Poe's with three large wild turkeys and they all had plenty of hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B Fitzgerrald left Saturday for their home in Roanoke.

Mr. D. D Poe left Saturday for Hopewell, Va., where he will visit his sister, Mrs. J. R. Brewer.

Best wishes to the Times.

Reflected Glory.
